The Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) is a federal agency located within the Office of Justice Programs that Congress formally established in 1988 through an amendment to the 1984 Victims of Crime Act. OVC provides federal leadership and federal funds to support victim compensation and assistance programs around the country and advocates for the fair treatment of crime victims worldwide. OVC administers formula and discretionary grants designed to benefit victims, provides training for diverse professionals who work with victims, develops projects to enhance victims' rights and services, and undertakes public education and awareness activities on behalf of crime victims.
